

News

Public school students compete in ballroom dancing

Saturday, April 22, 2006

•

April 22, 2006 (WLS) -- Hundreds of Chicago public school students showed some fancy footwork in a new dance competition.

Almost 200 fifth-graders from seven schools competed in ballroom dancing at an event called "Feet on Fire" at Walt Disney Magnet School.

The students went through ten weeks of intensive professional training, before and after school practices, and etiquette lessons.

The winning dancers were from Jordan school.

(Copyright ©2010 WLS-TV/DT. All Rights Reserved.)